

Daisy Cooney

daisy.a.cooney@gmail.com +44 7447 944 366 London-based

Education

London School of Economics and Political Science	October 2011 - July 2015 BSc. Social Policy (2:1) <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Dissertation: What has been the impact of community policing?
Richard Huish College, Taunton	September 2008 - July 2011 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A-Levels in Sociology (A*), Religious Studies (A), Politics (B)• AS-Level in Late Modern History (A)
Stanchester Community School	September 2003 - July 2008 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• GCSEs: 10 including Mathematics, English, and Science all grade A-B.

Relevant Policy Experience

Voluntary Action Islington	August 2014 - October 2014 Directory Researcher <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Created a database of all community and voluntary organisations in the Borough of Islington.• Marketed the project through social media channels, emails and letters to target audiences.• Interacted with many organisations at community centres to market the project.• Collected and collated information from Islington's local voluntary and community organisations.• Input information onto a Microsoft Access database.• Contacted community organisations by telephone, email and one to one meetings to ensure support for the project.• Met with local ward partners to ensure collaboration with the council in our project.• Maintained and overviewed the project, ensuring the project was running to schedule.
Macmillan	July 2014 - August 2014 Intern, End of Life Care Team <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Amalgamated evidence from a evaluation project into 6 pilot studies carried out for a new process for individuals coping with end of life and bereavement.• Use of statistics and excel during evaluative process.• Undertook a scoping project into Compassionate Communities which will be used to help build a strategic model to implement the building of more Compassionate Communities by my line manager.• Led a meeting with the End of Life Care team, looking into the layout and design of the website.

- Suggested a new layout for the webpages
- Interacted with members of the public and other healthcare professionals via twitter account.

Lloyds TSB

February 2011 to September 2011

Relationship Manager, National Clubs and Charities Centre

- Maintained and developed customer relationships.
- Gained knowledge and understanding of how charities are run and the pressures faced on a daily basis.
- Led a small team of four staff, supervising their administrative work.
- Met service standards of the company.
- Ensured that, as a team, we met and exceeded stretching targets for attracting new credit balances.
- Created leads for senior management to promote the banks lending and more sophisticated Treasury products.